

Friday - 27 April 1951

1. Attended meeting with Mr. Lay, Executive Secretary of the National Security Council, regarding exchange of atomic energy information with the British. (See memo for the record).
2. Mr. Tannenwald, Counsel to Mr. Harriman, called on behalf of the special task force (consisting of himself, Mr. Larkin, General Counsel, Department of Defense, and Mr. Fisher, Legal Advisor to the Department of State) which is considering the Administration's testimony in the MacArthur controversy, to request such material as CIA could make available as to the difficulties of intelligence operation in the Far Eastern Command due to the attitude of General MacArthur and his G-2 .

DOE, STATE & OSD review(s) completed.